

A SHOE SALE.

To meet the unprecedented demand for Tan Oxfords this season we have been obliged to carry an enormous stock. Our inventory just taken shows that we still have practically complete assortments of the most desirable styles. Since our store policy permits of no carrying over of unseasonable goods from one year to another, and in order positively to insure a quick clearance of these lines we announce a sale on all of our light weight summer shoes.

A Romance of the Days When the Lord Redeemed the Children of Israel From the Bondage of Egypt

By Elizabeth Miller

Copyright, 1903, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

On the day after a great storm, Kenkenes paid the first visit to Masarah since the incident of the collar—and the last he thought to make until he had won that for which he strove. He went to bury the matting in the sand and to hide other evidences of recent occupancy about the niche. He left the block of stone undisturbed, for the transgression was not yet apparent on the face of Athor. The scrolls, which had been concealed under the carpeting, were too numerous for his wallet to contain, but he carried the surplus openly in his hand.

It was sunset before he had made an end. To return to the Nile by way of the cliff front would have saved him time, but there was a boyish wish in his heart to look again on the lovely face that had helped him and baffled him. So he descended into the upper end of the ravine and slowly passed the outskirts of the camp, but the bond girl was nowhere to be seen. The spaces between the low tents were filled with feeding laborers, and there was an unusual amount of cheer to be noted among Israel of Masarah. Kenkenes heard the talk and laughter with some wonderment as he passed. He admitted that he was disappointed when, without a glimpse of Rachel, he emerged into the Nile valley. But he leaped lightly down the ledge, crossed the belt of rubble, talus and desert sand, and entered the now well marked wagon road between the dark green meadow land on either side. Egypt was in shadow—her sun behind the Libyan heights—but the short twilight had not fallen. Overhead were the cooling depths of sky, as yet starless, but the river was breathing on the winds and the sibilant murmur of its waters began to talk above the sounds of the city. To the north, the south and the east was pastoral and desert quiet; to the west was the gradual subsidence of urban stir. Frogs were beginning to croak in the distance, and in the long grain here and there a nocturnal insect chirred and stilled abruptly as the young man passed.

Within a rod of the pier some one called:

"My master?"

The voice came from a distance, but he knew whom he should see when he turned. Halfway across the field toward the quarries Rachel was coming, with a scroll in her lifted hand. He began to retrace his steps to meet her, but she noted the action and quickened her rapid walk into running.

"Thou didst drop this outside the camp," she said as she came near. "I feared it might have somewhat pertaining to the statue on it, and I have brought it, with the permission of the taskmaster." She stopped and, putting her hand into the folds of her habit on her breast, hesitated as if for words to speak further. Kenkenes interrupted her with his thanks.

"How thou hast fatigued thyself for me, Rachel! Out of all Egypt I doubt if I might find another so constant guardian of my welfare. The grace of the gods attend thee as faithfully. I thank thee most gratefully."

The purpose in her face dissolved; the hand that seemed to hold some what in the folds of her habit relaxed and fell slowly. While Kenkenes waited for her to speak he noted that a dress of unbleached linen replaced the coarse cotton surplice she had worn before, and her feet were shod with simple sandals, an extravagance among slaves. But the garb was yet too mean. The sculptor wondered at that moment how the sumptuous attire of the highborn Memphis woman would become her. He shook his head and in his imagination dressed her in snow white robes, with but the collar of rings about her throat, and stood back to marvel at his picture of splendid stupidity.

"Hast thou not something more to tell me?" he asked kindly. "Do thou rest here on the wharf while we talk. Art thou not quite breathless?"

"Nay, I thank thee," she faltered. "I may not linger." The hand once again sought the folds over her breast.

"Then let me walk with thee on thy way. It will be dark soon."

"Nay," she protested, flushing, "and again I thank thee. It is not needful." She made a movement as if to leave him, but he stepped to her side.

"Out upon thee, daughter of Israel! Thou art ungracious," he remonstrated laughingly. "I cannot think thee so wondrous brave. For it is a long walk to the camp, and the night will be pitch black. Why may I not go with thee?"

"There is naught to be feared."

"Of a truth? Those hills are as full of wild beasts as Ament is of spirits. And even if no hurt befall thee the trepidation of that long journey would be cruel. Nay, Ptah, the gallant god, would spurn my next offering did I send thee back to camp alone. Wilt thou come?"

She bowed and dropped behind him. Her resolution to maintain the forms of different rank between them was not characteristic of other slaves he had known. There was no presumption or humble gratitude in her manner when he would offer her the courtesies of an equal, but he had met the disdain of a peer once when he thought he talked with a slave. There was something mocking in her perfumery defiance, but her pride was genuine. Her conduct seemed to say, "I would liefer be a Hebrew and a slave than a princess of the God forgotten realm of Egypt."

The young sculptor was untrifled, however. He was turning over in his mind, with interest, the evidence that tended to show that the Israelite had something more to tell him, that her courage had failed her and that her hand sought something concealed in her dress. He recalled the former meetings with her and arrived at a surmise so sudden and so conclusive that with difficulty he kept himself from making outward demonstration of his conviction. "The collar, by Apis! I offended her with the trinket. And she came to make me take it back, and she courage fled. Pile upon my clumsy gallantries! I must make amends. I would not have her hate me."

He broke the silence with an old, old remark—one that Adam might have made to Eve.

"Look at the stars, Rachel. There is a dark casement in the heavens—a blink of the eye and the lamp is alight."

"So I watch them every night. But they are swifter here in Memphis. At Mendes, where Israel toiled once, they are more deliberate," she answered readily.

"Aye, but you should see them at Philae. They ignite and bound into brilliance like sparks of meeting metal and flint. Ah, but the tropics are precipitate!"

"I know them not," she ventured. "Their acquaintance is better avoided. They have no mean; they leap from extreme to extreme. They are violent, immoderate. It is instant night and instant day; it is the maddest passion of summer airways. Nature reigns at the top of her voice and chokes her realm with the fervor of her maternity. Nay, give me the north. I would feel the earth's pulse now and then without burning my fingers."

"There is room for choice in this land of thine," she mused after a little. "Land of mine?" he repeated inquiringly, turning his head to look at her. "Is it not also thine?"

"Nay, it is not the Hebrews', and it never was," the clear answer came from the dusk behind him.

"So!" he exclaimed. "After 400 years in Egypt they have not adopted her?"

"We have but sojourned here a night. The journey's end is farther on."

"Israel hath made a long night of the sojourn," he rejoined laughingly.

"Nay," she answered. "Thou hast not said aright. It is Egypt that hath made a long night of our sojourn."

There was a silence in which Kenkenes felt accused and uncomfortable. It would require little to make harsh the temper of the talk. It lay with him, one of the race of offenders, to make amends.

"It is for me to admit Egypt's sin and ask a truce," he said gently, "so be thou generous to me, since it is I who am abashed in her stead."

Again there was silence, broken at last by the Israelite in a voice grown wondrously contrite.

"I do not reproach thee, nor, indeed, is all Egypt at fault. The sin lies with the Pharaohs."

"Ah, the gods forbid!" he protested. "Lay it on the shoulders of babes, if thou wilt, but I am party to treason if I but give ear to a rebuke of the monarch."

"I am not ignorant of the law. I shall spare thee, but I have purchased my right to condemn the king."

"Thou indomitable! And I accused thee of fear! I retract. But tell me, what is the journey's end? Is it the ultimate goal of all flesh?"

"Not so," she answered proudly. "It is Israel's inheritance, promised for 400 years. The time is ripe for possession. We go forward to enter into a land of our own."

"Thou givest me news. Come, be the Hebrews' historian and enlighten me. Where lies the land?"

Rachel hesitated. To her it was a serious problem to decide whether the lightness of the sculptor's tone were mockery or good fellowship. Kenkenes noted her silence and spoke again.

"Perchance I ask after a heretic secret. If so, forgive the blunder."

"Nay," she replied at once, "it is no secret. All Egypt will know of it ere long. God hath prepared us a land wherein we may dwell under no master but Jehovah. We go hence shortly to enter it. The captain of Israel will lead us thither, and Jehovah will show him the way. Abraham was informed that it was a wondrous land, wherein the olive and the grape will crown the hills, the corn will fill the valleys, the cattle and sheep the pasture lands. There will be many rivers instead of one, and the desert will lie afar off from its confines. The sun will shine and the rain will fall and the winds will blow as man needeth them, and there will be no slavery and no heavy life therein. The land shall be Israel's, and its enemies shall crouch without its borders, confounded at the splendor of the children of God. And there will our princes arise and a throne be set up and a mighty nation established. Cities will shine white and strong walled on the heights, and caravans of commerce will follow down the broad roadways to the sea. There will the ships of Israel come bowing over the waters with the riches of the world, and our wharves will be crowded with purple and gold and frankincense. Babylon shall do homage on the right hand and Egypt upon the left, and the straight smoke from Jehovah's altar will rise from the center unfailing by day or by night."

They had reached the ledge, and Kenkenes sat down on it, leaning on one hand across Rachel's waist. She paused near him. Even in the dark he could see the light in her eyes, and the joy of anticipation was in her voice. As yet he did not know whether she talked of the Israelitish conception of supernatural life or of a belief in a temporal redemption.

"And there shall be no death nor any of the world sorrows therein?" he asked.

"Since we shall dwell in the world we may not escape the world's uncertainties," she replied, looking at his lifted face. "But most men live better lives when they live happily, and I doubt not there will be less unhappiness, provident or fortuitous, in Israel the nation than in Israel enslaved."

So the slave talked of freedom as slaves talk of it—hopefully and eloquently. A pity asserted itself in the young sculptor's heart and grew to such power that it thinned his speech. "Is thy heart then so firmly set on this thing?" he asked gently.

"It is the hope that bears Israel's burdens and the balm that heals the welt of the lash."

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

The only other name prominently mentioned at this time for the Republican gubernatorial nomination besides that of Attorney General Miller, is that of Union Banner Hunt, chairman of the Indiana railway commission. He is not letting anything get away that will advance his interests, and right now there are a number of the most powerful politicians in the state putting in some good licks for him. Most of the party leaders declare that it is a little early to talk about the race for governor, but it is noticeable that they are deeply interested in everything that pertains to it.

TALKING IT OVER

Japanese Elder Statesmen Discussing Portsmouth Situation.

MADE A NEW APPEAL

There is a Persistent Report That President Has Again Approached the Emperor of Japan.

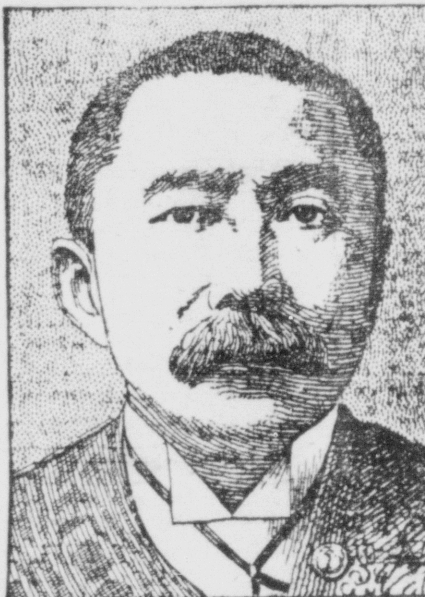

A Significant Halt Has Been Ordered in Progress of Peace Conference.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 28.—There is a persistent report that President Roosevelt has made a new appeal to the emperor of Japan.

Tokio, Aug. 28.—A specially summoned council of the cabinet and elder statesmen is now in session discussing the latest final phases of the peace conference at Portsmouth.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 28.—The meeting of the peace conference which was to have been held today has been postponed until Tuesday at 4 p. m., at the request of Mr. Takahira, who explained that the Japanese envoys had received nothing as yet from Tokio.

The life of the peace conference seems to hang by a thread, but the thread will not be broken today. After a two hours' conference between Mr. Takahira and Mr. Witte in the latter's room in the hotel annex, the announcement of a postponement was made. Mr. Witte explained that Mr. Takahira had told him that no new instructions had reached him from Tokio, and fearing none might be received before the meeting scheduled for this afternoon, he had suggested the propriety of postponing the meeting until Tuesday. To this Mr. Witte said he had readily assented. Mr. Takahira made the following statement to the press: "Inasmuch as this conference was initiated by the friendly offices of your president, after consultation we felt that we should be cautious about terminating its labors."

Pressed as to whether he regarded the situation as hopeless, Mr. Takahira said: "No, not hopeless, but almost hopeless."

This in itself from one who has spoken always in the most guarded fashion, is sufficient to show the despatch of the situation. The real crisis in negotiations is at hand. It is very acute, but if it can be tided over for a few days without a rupture, a basis of peace acceptable to both sides may come very suddenly.

But to save the situation now, Japan must speak. If on Tuesday she has nothing to offer, all is over. Mr. Witte, even if he would, is powerless to take a new step. His hands are tied. He now occupies the role of an imperial messenger who transmits his master's orders to Baron Komura, and Baron Komura turns them over to Tokio for the response. The conference room has ceased to be a place for negotiations. It is simply the place where the emperors of the warring countries exchange their communications by the hands of their envoys. And upon the point of indemnity or reimbursement of the cost of war under any disguise, Emperor Nicholas has given the Japanese emperor his last word. Mr. Witte accepts it as final and in writing has informed the Japanese plenipotentiaries that Russia will have nothing further to say upon this subject. Russia will cede half of Sakhalin and pay the cost of the maintenance of the Russian prisoners, but that is all. Emperor Nicholas has given the same response to the president through Ambassador Meyer. The Russians generally seem not displeased with the situation. They believe Japan has been diplomatically maneuvered into a corner from which, if she now persists in her attempt to exact tribute with the alternative of a continuance of the war, she cannot extricate herself before the public opinion of the world. Japan here and in Europe they say appealed for sympathy on the ground that Russia had compelled her to take arms to protect her life. The fortune of war had gone in her favor and Russia, recognizing that she had been beaten and preferring peace to the continuation of the war, had agreed to cede upon every point involved in the quarrel. She was willing to allow Japan full swing in Korea, she was willing to get out of Manchuria, bag and baggage, and commit herself to the recognition of China's integrity and the policy of the "open door." But Japan insisted upon tribute, and because Russia refused, prolongs the carnage. In that act they contend Japan would change the purpose and character of the war, which would cease to be one of principle and degenerate into a war for the exaction of money.

There is no doubt that the Japanese are worried over this aspect of the situation, and they do not propose to be placed in this position if it can be helped. With the sentiment existing in Japan demanding reimbursement for the expenses of the war, a money payment beyond what would be obtained for the maintenance of Russian prisoners and the Chinese Eastern railroad could not be foregone. But if redemption by Russia could be placed upon purely a commercial basis, Russia might agree to it. Logic points in this direction for the ultimate compromise if there is to be one.

Although the public is led to believe that the meeting was definitely adjourned until Tuesday, it is learned that according to the joint understanding between Mr. Witte and Mr. Takahira, it was agreed that there would be no meeting until Japan's response to what may be regarded as the Russian ultimatum arrived. The meeting therefore may not be held until Wednesday or Thursday. Tokio must now decide and, judging from the tone of the Japanese press, the government must face a great deal of opposition at home if it yields further.

Popular Opposition Raised.

Tokio, Aug. 28.—The proposal that Sakhalin be divided between Russia and Japan is exciting strong popular opposition here, and it is freely predicted that acceptance of it will result in demonstrations against the government.

INDIGNATION GENERAL

Haste of Prince Louis Not Pleasing to Newfoundlanders.

St. John's, N. F., Aug. 28.—At a public meeting attended by leading politicians of both parties, prominent merchants and other representative citizens, it was unanimously resolved to abandon the proposed ball and other civic festivities in honor of Prince Louis of Battenberg, owing to his intimation that he intends to spend only one night in St. John's. Indignation is general. Governor MacGregor, not knowing of the prince's decision to make only a brief stay, had arranged to cut short his important scientific expedition in Labrador, in order to return here to receive the prince.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Four lives were lost in the burning of a hotel at Maracanocok, Me.

By the sudden rise of Elk river in West Virginia five persons were drowned.

The national convention of the Kreiger Verein of America is in session at Joliet, Ill.

Telephones and wireless telegraphs throughout China have been declared government monopolies.

The general offices of the Southern Indiana Railway company will be moved from Terre Haute to Chicago.

W. G. Bierd of Chicago has been appointed superintendent of the Panama railroad, to succeed H. G. Prescott.

The American bark Antiope has been captured by the Japanese. She is the third American vessel to be captured by the Japanese within a few weeks.

Twenty Mexican laborers were killed and a number injured by the premature explosion of a quantity of dynamite at the port works at Manzanillo.

Seven companies of Tennessee national guard have left their camp at Harrison to proceed to Tracy City, where striking union miners are threatening trouble.

John Moore, a negro twenty years old, charged with burglary and attempted murder, was taken from the jail in Newbern, N. C., and lynched by a mob of 100 masked men.

Plans for a federation of all Catholic military organizations in the United States were discussed at the convention of the Order of Catholic Knights of America at Chicago.

A general meeting of all the bituminous coal operators of the country will be held in Chicago on Nov. 22 to discuss what attitude the employers shall take in respect to the next interstate wage conference.

TWO HUGE ARMIES

Situation at the Theatre of War Shows Complications.

THIRD STAGE OF WAR

Owing to Unexpected Size of the Armies New Conditions Are Presenting Themselves.

Whether It Be Active Hostilities or Peace Difficult Problems Must Be Solved.

Gunshu Pass, Manchuria, Aug. 28.—Intelligence of the constitutional grants by the government has been received by the army, and general information relating to Portsmouth affairs continues to reach here from three to ten days late. Since the Japanese reconnoitered the Russian center about twenty-five or thirty miles on Aug. 10, which resulted in retaliatory skirmishing as well as the check-mating of a wide movement of considerable bodies of troops throughout three days, nothing important has occurred. During the long quiet there have been reinforcements to both sides, giving the theater of war a much-changed appearance. The front has been greatly extended, made possible by the use of the wireless telegraph and because of the unexampled size of the third stage of the war, whether it be active hostilities, demobilization or the garrisoning of contested territory, will be complicated.

The relative positions of the two armies is comparable to that of a year ago, and the country immediately facing the Japanese is almost identical with that which confronted them at Liao Yang. The acquisition of the railway and rivers by the Japanese at Mukden, together with their Feng Wang Cheng communications and General Kawamura's new line of communication and defense, running from the head of navigation on the Yalu river across to Kailuan, with the occupation of the Changpaishan mountain region, makes control of the administration of South Manchuria as complete as that achieved in the north by similar organization and in the rapid consolidation of these connections, the destiny of Manchuria is clearly fixed regardless of other influences.

Your correspondent recently traversed 200 miles over the old imperial hunting reserve on the east flank, which was opened to settlement several years ago. Heavy crops of oil beans, millet, maize, indigo and hemp are under cultivation there now. This comprises a region extensively scouted by the Japanese, who appear bold and active pending the negotiations. The people complain of horse thieves and robbers.

There is general appreciation throughout of the demonstrations in the United States for M. Witte. After an enormous rainfall during the past ten days it is believed the rainy season is closed.

MINISTER ARRESTED

Pulpit of a New Jersey Church Scene of Disturbance.

Milford, N. J., Aug. 28.—Rev. N. R. Field, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church, was arrested during a service in that church Sunday, charged with creating a disturbance. He was later arraigned and gave bonds for his appearance in court. Mr. Field, it is alleged, was asked to resign the pastorate of the church several weeks ago, but for some time he has insisted on filling the pulpit. Yesterday Mr. Field attempted to force his way into the pulpit just as another minister was about to begin his sermon. He was requested to take a seat in the congregation, and on his refusal to do so the church officials directed an officer to place the minister under arrest.

Buffalo Boy's Story.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Declaring that he was kidnapped from his home in Buffalo by a man who seized him and hurried him away on a train, John Besch, fifteen years old, told the police a story of how he had been held captive and beaten by the stranger during the journey from Buffalo to Chicago. Besch, according to his story, arrived in South Chicago with the stranger early last Friday morning. He was made to beg on the streets, but later managed to make his escape, and came to the police.

Nome's Gold Output.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 28.—United States Assayer Fred Wing, in charge of the local assay office, has made the statement that his estimate of the gold output of Nome for the season of 1905 was $10,000,000. This amount will be the record for Nome and will exceed the output of last year by $3,000,000.

Japanese Naval Activity.

Tokio, Aug. 28.—Rear Admiral Kataoka has reported to the imperial navy department that the naval division sent up the Amar river bombarded and destroyed two Russian guard stations at Zhafes and Lazervo on the south bank of the river. These stations had recently been reinforced.

CATARRH

A UNIVERSAL DISEASE

Catarrh usually begins with a cold in the head, but does not stop there. The mucous membranes all become inflamed and secrete a filthy, unhealthy matter which is absorbed by the blood and distributed to all parts of the body. The patient is then continually hacking and spitting, the nose is stopped, the throat becomes sore, and as the unhealthy matter more thoroughly saturates the blood a general feeling of despondency takes possession of the system.

I had Catarrh for about fifteen years, and no man could have been worse. I tried everything I could hear of, but no good resulted. I then began S. S. S., and could see a little improvement from the first bottle, and after taking it a short while was cured. This was six years ago, and I am as well today as any man. I think Catarrh is a blood disease, and know there is nothing on earth better for the blood than S. S. S. No body thinks more of S. S. S. than I do. Lapeer, Mich. M. MATSON.

Local applications cannot cure Catarrh, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. They allay the inflammation and temporarily relieve the disease, but as soon as they are left off the trouble returns. The only way to cure Catarrh is to treat it through the blood. S. S. S. soon clears the blood of all Catarrhal matter and purges it of all irritating poisons, checks further progress of the trouble and completely cures the disease. S. S. S. keeps the blood in perfect order so that it can eliminate all waste matter that will produce Catarrh. Duane Catarrh.

Cairo's Strict Quarantine.
Cairo, Ill., Aug. 28.—Crowds of through passengers were detained at the central station Sunday because they were not supplied with permits, and a guard was placed over them until they could be sent on their way. A number of arrests were made of persons who were trying to evade the quarantine officers. A lady arrived on a steamer from Memphis, en route to Indiana; she had no permit and her train did not leave until this morning; she was permitted to go to a hotel and was pledged to stay inside until time for the arrival of her train.

Owing to the municipal elections which will take place in November, very little is being done now toward the reorganization of the Republican state committee. The friends of Chairman Goodrich say that things are shaping up so that he will be elected again without much trouble. In fact, many of them say there will be practically no opposition to him when the time comes for perfecting the new organization. The editors of the party papers who exert a powerful influence are standing by Chairman Goodrich and are making sentiment stronger for him.

$500 Reward For Women Who Cannot Be Cured.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases such as leucorrhea, female weakness, profluvium, and all other diseases of the female system, is offered to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Profluvium, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I used four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elmer D. Shearer, of Mount Hope, Lancaster Co., Pa. "and can say that I am cured of that dreaded disease, leucorrhea. Am in better health than ever before. Every one who knows me is surprised to see me look so well. In June I was so poor in health that at times I could not walk. Today I am cured. I tell everybody that Dr. Pierce's medicines cured me."

Obituary.

Calvin H. Baise was born March 6, 1846 in Cumberland County, Kentucky, was married to Angie F. Norris February 18, 1869. To them were born seven children, four sons and three daughters, James R., Elwin J., Irwin, Curtis C., Laura S., Mattie E., and Cora E. Of these seven children, four survive with the mother. Three have passed on before. Calvin H. Baise confessed Christ and joined the M. E. church south and lived a consistent christian life for 25 years. He died at the age of 59 years, 5 months and 20 days in the triumph of a living faith. During the Park camp meeting conducted by the Texas boys he yielded fully to God and was sanctified wholly and from that time to the time of his death, lived a victorious triumphant life. His prayers and testimonies were full of unction and power. The funeral was conducted at his home on North Mill street Sunday p. m. by Rev. Etta Innis, pastor of the Holiness christian church.

Supt. J. W. Thompson and Others Retire from Road.

John R. Walsh, Jr., vice president of the Southern Indiana Railway Company, has announced the following changes in officials: M. W. Wells, general superintendent, to succeed J. W. Thompson, resigned; J. J. Collins, superintendent, to succeed L. R. Witty, resigned. J. O. Bell, trainmaster, and Charles Townsley, chief train dispatcher, also have resigned, but their successors have not been named. J. W. Thompson, who was also president of the Southern Indiana Hotel Company, tendered his resignation about a month ago, to take effect as soon as his successor could be appointed. He will sever connections with all of the companies controlled by John R. Walsh. Mr. Wells, who succeeds him as general manager of the Southern Indiana Railway Company, was formerly general manager of the Illinois Southern Railway Company, a road controlled by Walsh. Collins has also been connected with the Illinois Southern.

Thompson is said to have been requested to resign by John R. Walsh. Some time ago they disagreed regarding plans and management of the Southern Indiana road. It is stated that Thompson said if they could not agree he would retire and that Walsh immediately requested his resignation. The other men are personal friends of Thompson and their resignation is a natural consequence with the new management.

Thompson tendered his resignation about a month ago, but the other men knew nothing of the contemplated change until they were requested a day or two ago to resign. Thompson is on his farm in Illinois. He may not re-engage in railroad work.

Baptist Picnic.

The Baptist church and Sunday school will have their annual picnic in Rapp's grove on next Wednesday August 30th. Arrangements have been made with the Pennsylvania R. R. to have special cars on their train going north at 8:06 a. m. and to stop the train coming south at 5:40 p. m. Both trains will make the stop at the bridge near the grove, so there will be no inconvenience in getting there. The fare for the round trip will be 15 cents. All the scholars in the Sunday school will be given their tickets and it is hoped all will go. There will be games, refreshments, boating, swings, and all that can be done to give the children a good time. Let all, young and old attend, have a good time and make a great day. Everybody not members of the Baptist church or Sunday school will be welcome. Remember it is a basket picnic so don't forget your dinner. Be at the station by 7:45 so as to get ticket. Everybody come.

Successful Meeting.

Rev. Harley Jackson, of this city closed a ten days successful meeting at the Honeytown Christian church Sunday evening. During the meeting there were nineteen additions to the church. The attendance at all the services was good and the interest increased from the start. Sixteen were baptized Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the river. The church was strengthened very materially by this series of meetings and the work of Mr. Jackson is very highly commended.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight, to tell, that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by W. F. ## SEYMOUR PEOPLE

RESTORED TO SIGHT AGAIN.

Wonderful Results of Grim's Multi-Center Lenses.

MR. THEODORE DROGE, with the Greeman Furniture Company says: "My work of saw filing being close and confining and compelling me to use one set of eye muscles more than another, I have been troubled for some time with unbalanced eye muscles causing me much trouble in seeing my work properly."

I had tried to get relief by having glasses fitted. Although being somewhat benefited as regards my seeing I was never able to obtain entire relief. I then had Dr. Grim examine my eyes and fit me with a pair of his Multi-Center Lenses and can say they are the best glasses I have ever worn, they answer my purposes admirably and restored me again to normal vision.

(Remember it is dangerous to have your eyes examined or glasses fitted by "so called opticians, optometrists and spectacle peddlers" who do not possess a thorough medical education.)

Minister Knocked Down.

At the B. & O. S-W. depot at Brownstown Monday morning Frank Falk struck Elder J. C. Whit a blow that knocked the minister down. Only the one blow was struck as people standing by interfered and the men were separated. The attack on the minister was due, it is said, to a personal reference he made in his sermon Sunday night at a Union service at Brownstown to Mr. Falk. When the latter heard of the personal allusion to himself he decided to resent it and did so by striking the minister when he met him at the depot. The minister it is said was not much hurt. Elder Whit is the pastor of the Christian church at Brownstown and is probably fifty years of age. He is said to be an able preacher. Mr. Falk is proprietor of the Falk House at Brownstown and is well known over the country.

BOX GARDENS.

The Happy Outcome of an August Disappointment.

An August disappointment resulted in subsequent satisfaction last year and added helpful facts to my window garden experience. A new and wonderful ever blooming daisy had been recommended by a local florist as especially adaptable for summer window garden culture. It proved to be of the same general nature as our native daisies, producing luxuriant bloom in the early summer and taking a season of rest during August in order to be ready to produce a second scanty supply of flowers in the autumn. During late July and August, just when it was most desirable to have the summer window boxes at their best, it was a flat failure.

In disgust at the dilapidated appearance of the long window box from which so much had been expected and so little obtained I rooted out the plants completely, not even leaving a few for autumn display. The box was filled with fresh soil, and thrifty geranium slips from the lawn beds were set rather close, with periwinkle and ivy, well rooted, set along the edge of the box and trained up over it, to give a green appearance while the geraniums were getting a start. With copious watering and judicious shading from the hot midday sun, the sturdy, reliable geraniums quickly responded, and two flourishing potted geraniums, full of bloom, were set at each end of the box to produce the color display while the slips were growing into blooming size.

A Winter Window Box.
When potting time came and frosty nights made it necessary to hasten the winter bloomers inside each August slipped geranium had made such flourishing growth and gave such promise of abundant bloom that it seemed unwise to disturb the roots. The summer window box was therefore converted into a winter window box without any further ceremony whatever.

As the box itself was covered with bark in quilt, rustic effect it was especially ornamental for the main shelf of the winter garden, and, fortunately, of just the right size. The two potted geraniums, which were nearly exhausted with their all summer blooming, were removed from the box to give the flourishing young plants more room. The winter blooming set in with most satisfactory vigor as soon as the plants were taken inside and continued throughout the winter and spring.

Again a Summer Box.
It seemed that the plants must surely be exhausted by the following summer, but that experimental box garden was the surprise of the neighborhood during the spring and early summer. The well developed plants were simply a mass of bloom when the weather became sufficiently warm and settled to give the box its old position for summer window display outside. At the time when other window boxes were getting their first struggling start into future loveliness this box garden was at the height of its beauty, and the plants did not demand a rest until the other summer window boxes were well filled with bloomers, and this could be spared for recuperation.

Now Is the Day to Start Slips.
Geranium slips started early in August produce more rapid and flourishing growth than at any other season if carefully watered and intelligently shaded until well rooted. This is the best time to start the winter window boxes, if it is desirable to have luxuriant blooming from the time they are first taken inside.

Suitable vines and trailers add materially to the success of box gardening. German ivy, climbing nasturtiums and ivy geraniums are all abundantly satisfactory and form thrifty trailers as well as climbers.—Phebe W. Humphreys in Good Housekeeping.

Eighth Annual Saengerfest.

Anderson, Ind., July 3.—Over 2,500 visitors are expected here today to attend the eighth annual saengerfest of the Indiana and Ohio Saengerbund, which opens for a three days' session at Harmonica park.

A Deadly Cloudburst.
Del Rio, July 3.—Ten lives are known to be lost as the result of a cloudburst in the mountains near the town of Lasvacas.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Applications For Transfer Cards. Pythian Notes and Gossip.

The supreme chancellor says there is too much indifference on the part of subordinate lodges in acting on applications for transfer cards. It is the duty of every subordinate lodge to grant transfer cards to applicants promptly when they are entitled to same, so that members may be able to affiliate with the lodges where they reside. Many members are lost by this lack of prompt action on the part of subordinate lodges. Transferring from one lodge to another should be made as easy and inexpensive as possible.

At the rate of changes now being made by the grand lodges there will be much new blood in the next session of the supreme convention.

The Pythian Sisterhood is composed of the wives, daughters, mothers and sisters of Knights of Pythias, but is not an auxiliary organization.

The Knights of Pythias of Ohio has total assets amounting to $1,578,252.82.

The Order of Ruthbone Sisters is showing a healthy growth. Many new temples have been instituted since the first of the year.

ODD FELLOWS.

The Militant Branch of the Order. Friendly Grips.

The number of encampments, as given in a table published by General M. A. Roney, commanding the Patriarchs Militant branch of the order, is 2,556; number of encampment members, 153,293; average encampment membership, 51. Number of cantons Patriarchs Militant, 558; number of chevalliers, 18,832; average number to canton, 33; per cent of cantons to "camps," 12.24. Of the seven departments ranking as divisions, Iowa leads with 18,12 per cent; Massachusetts, 15,94; New York, 15,28; Ohio, 12,86; Illinois, 11,18; Pennsylvania, 7,75; Indiana, 6,15.

During the year 1904 the grand jurisdiction of Connecticut made a gain of 155, the present membership being 18,478.

Plan your lodge work now so as to keep things running through the winter without a break.

A class of eighty-seven candidates was initiated in Coles County lodge, No. 260, Mattoon, Ill., recently. The grand master and 500 visiting members were present.

Bishop John M. Walden of the Methodist church is a member of the order. He was initiated in Woodbine lodge, No. 126, Mount Healthy, Hamilton county, Ia., Sept. 18, 1892.

Grand Secretary Bolton of Minnesota reports a membership of 17,770 in his jurisdiction.

Take an interest in the new member. Make it pleasant for him while he is getting acquainted.

Manchester encampment of Pennsylvania recently admitted, advanced and initiated a class of 130 candidates. This is said to be the largest class ever put through by any encampment of the order.

Reports from many Maccabee jurisdictions show a steady gain in membership.

Look up the suspended members. A word will sometimes save a member and perchance keep a family from want.

Many of the California tents will nearly double their membership this year.

Over 1,000 new members joined the order in Maine during the first six months of this year.

An enthusiastic social committee in each tent will be a great help in bringing out the members in the work.

UNITED WORKMEN.

To Make the Meetings Interesting. Workshop Notes.

The Oregon Reporter suggests a plan to make the meetings interesting and to also work out a great benefit to the order in their respective neighborhoods. Give a prize of $2, $3 or $5 to the member under thirty-five years of age who can present in his own language, either written out or delivered offhand, the most comprehensive, intelligent and easily understood explanation of the new plan in all its features. There might be a month's trial, three or four having an opportunity each week to be heard. This would give twelve to twenty a chance to enter for the prize, which should be awarded by some competent judges appointed for the purpose.

The Emblem recently reported a membership in good standing in Washington of 8,196.

The grand recorders of a number of jurisdictions report fewer suspensions. You cannot advertise the order too much. There are many ways to keep it before the public.

The A. O. U. W. is here to stay. It is as enduring as the eternal hills, and every true friend of fraternity will see to it that it shall go on in its great work of fraternity, charity, protection, hope and brotherly love for all time to come.—Hoosier Watchman.

Fraternal Order of Eagles.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles is fast becoming one of the most powerful fraternities in the Hawaiian Islands, and the active in Honolulu bears on its membership roll the names of almost all the leading professional and business men of the island.

Brooklyn acrole of Massachusetts recently initiated a class of nearly a hundred candidates.

Poisons in Food.
Perhaps you don't realize that many pain poisons originate in your food, but some day you may feel a twinge of dyspepsia that will convince you. Dr. King's New Life Pills are guaranteed to cure all sickness due to poisons of undigested food—or money back. 25c at W. F. Peter Drug Co.

THE FIGHT IS ON

Chicago Printers Force the Eight-Hour Issue.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Before the middle of this week every union printer in the thirty-seven shops controlled by the Chicago Typothetae will be on strike, and before another week the fight may be extended to twelve of the principal cities of the middle West, the employers of which are organized, with the Chicago Typothetae, into a middle West association. This forms a part of the national body of master printers.

That the printers will put up a long and bitter fight against the Typothetae was foreshadowed Sunday when Typographical Union No. 16 met at Brand's hall and raised the strike assessment from 2 to 10 per cent. The union also decided to force the fighting by presenting at once the demands for an eight-hour agreement and an agreement for closed shops.

The raising of the strike assessment means an addition of $8,000 weekly to the defense fund, and the printers say they can keep 900 men on the streets without touching the $1,000,000 fund which the union says it is ready to spend if necessary.

May Mean Great Coal Strike.

Tamaqua, Pa., Aug. 28.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, in a speech at Manila park Sunday, made an unequivocal declaration that his organization will at the expiration of the present wage agreement in April next, demand recognition of the union and an eight-hour day. President Mitchell said that he hoped by that time he would be able to go before George F. Baer, president of the Philadelphia & Reading company, and, pointing to 150,000 men and boys who are employed in and about the mines, say: "We have fixed the price for our labor. You can take it or leave it."

Great Army of Teachers.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The census bureau has just published a bulletin in analysis of the census statistics relating to teachers. Calculating the school age as from five to twenty-four, the report finds that taking the country as a whole there is an average of one teacher to every seventy-one pupils. The computation shows that the supply of teachers in proportion to school population has more than doubled in the last thirty years, and that teachers exceed the total number of clergymen, lawyers and physicians.

Peasants Coerce Nobles.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 28.—There is a great increase in the agrarian agitation in various parts of the country, wholly in the Caucasus, where there have been serious disturbances. In the Gori districts the peasants are forcing the nobles, under the menace of death, to announce to the newspapers that they are handing over their holdings to the peasants freely or are accepting one-tenth instead of one-quarter of the crop yield.

Killed Himself in Church.

Minneapolis, Aug. 28.—But a few minutes after the close of Rev. W. B. Riley's address at the First Baptist church, a man who is thought to be W. Rowen of Sublette, Ill., got up in a pew and fired a bullet through his heart, dying instantly. When the tragedy occurred nearly 200 people were in the church on their way out, and at the report of the revolver, many women fainted.

Sir Michael Didn't Stop.

New York, Aug. 28.—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, former chancellor of the exchequer of Great Britain, with his wife and two daughters, arrived here on the Umbria Sunday, and went directly to the Grand Central station, where they took the first train for Vancouver. Sir Michael is on his way to Singapore on a government mission.

Jail Breakers Foiled.

Boonville, Ind., Aug. 28.—While the prisoners in the county jail were cutting their way to liberty the sheriff's wife discovered the plot and by giving the alarm prevented a delivery of all the prisoners.

Jno. N. Fisk.

The announcement of the death of "Nel" Fisk, which occurred at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fisk, on High street Friday morning at 2 o'clock, came as a great shock to his many friends. For several months he had been a great sufferer from stomach trouble and compelled to give up the grocery business in Seymour, coming back to the old home in June. For a few weeks he grew better and was able to come down town and mingle with friends. Last Saturday he began to fail, but was not confined to his bed until Wednesday. He was an upright and honorable young man and his untimely death is a matter of general regret. A widow who was Miss Mary Crouch, survives him—Rising Sun Local.

Have Made Many Seymour Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Seymour citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make any one happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truth representations of the daily work done in Seymour by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Capt. Carr, retired veteran of the civil war, living on North Broadway, says: "I used two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills for lameness in my back and depressing aching across the loins. The first box which I procured from C. W. Milhous' drug store benefited me so greatly that I bought a second and it removed the backache and banished the disagreeable aching in the top and back of my head. I can with pleasure recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for backache and lumbago for I have proved their merits by my own experience."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster—Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

INDIANAPOLIS CAMPAIGN

Municipal Contest is Now Open in Earnest.

Indianapolis, Aug. 28.—Charles A. Bookwalter, Republican candidate for mayor, will formally open his campaign with a big mass meeting at Tomlinson hall Sept. 10 or 12, at which he will state his position in the vigorous style for which he is noted. Bookwalter hopes to be heard by all the voters in the city during the few weeks that follow before the election. Under the circumstances he will probably be a favorite on the betting boards right from the start, and it will be surprising if the odds don't increase as the campaign progresses. If Mayor Holtzman, who was renominated Saturday, can line up his own party, he will be a very formidable candidate, but it looks as if many of its leaders will support him only in a perfunctory way. The campaign, however, promises to be the most exciting in the history of Indianapolis.

The Anti-Saloon League of Indiana is working up public sentiment to obtain the enactment of more stringent liquor legislation. The following enactments are being considered. First, a law to thoroughly eliminate and crush the "blind tigers" that are springing up where the saloons are driven out; second, a law providing for the filling of a remonstrance against all applicants for retail liquor license in a city or county for a period of two years; third, a law providing for the filling of a remonstrance to cover the entire state. The latter will be the cap-sheaf of the stringent anti-liquor legislation the league will present, and it is expected to be effective in driving all of the saloons of Indiana out of business. The officials of the organization realize that it would be folly to attempt to obtain a radical enactment now, but they are taking time by the forelock and are preparing the people in the rural communities for the battle. The next session of the legislature will be asked to enact a law to stamp out the "blind tigers." A bill for that purpose was presented last winter by Senator Milburn of Jasper, but it was decided that the Moore law ought to be sufficient for the temperance forces, so it was defeated. The league will probably wait four years before attempting to broaden the power of remonstrance.

Governor Hanly thus far has shown no disposition to go after corporations merely on general principles. The final report of the state board of tax commissioners for the session of 1905 shows that the representatives of the big corporations who thought that Governor Hanly, because of his reform ideas would be severe with them and jump the appraisal of their property sky high, worried unnecessarily. The total increase in valuation of taxable property, according to a table of figures completed in the auditor of state's office, was $21,557,243, but $17,406,853 of the amount was on personal property. As an evidence that the governor was not attempting to use the ax on the corporations, the report showed that the increase in the valuation of the railroads was but $3,508,846.

The Russian government has suspended the St. Petersburg Slovo for a month for open defiance of the strict order prohibiting publication of the proceedings of the zemstvo congress at Moscow.

A Continual Strain.
Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of the "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain."

Trial bottle of August Flower, 2¢ regular size, 75¢. For sale by W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Every Heart-Ache

Every pain in the breast, difficult breathing, palpitation, fluttering or dizzy spell means that your heart is straining itself in its effort to keep in motion. This is dangerous.

Some sudden strain from over-exertion or excitement will completely exhaust the nerves, or rupture the walls or arteries of the heart, and it will stop. Relieve this terrible strain at once with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It invigorates and strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, stimulates the heart action, and relieves the pain and misery.

Take no chances; make your heart strong and vigorous with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"I suffered terribly with heart disease, have been treated by different physicians for my trouble without results. I went to a physician in Memphis, who claimed that I had dropsy of the heart. He put the X-ray on me, and in connection with his medicine he came near making a finish of me. Some time before this a Mr. Young of St. Louis, was in our town. He saw my condition, and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to me. I gave it little attention until my return from Memphis, when I concluded to try it, and am pleased to say three bottles cured me."

CHARLES GOODRICH, Caruthersville, Mo.
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

Youth Fatally Strained.
Vincennes, Ind., Aug. 28.—In a free-for-all fight over a piece of watermelon Everett Collins, nineteen years old, was perhaps fatally stabbed by Arthur Parr. Just how seriously Parr was injured in the fight is not known, as the police have not succeeded in capturing him. It is said, however, that he was struck over the head with a club in the hands of Collins.

March of Yellow Jack.
New Orleans, Aug. 28.—Report of yellow fever conditions up to 6 p. m. Sunday: New cases, 31; total to date 1,743; deaths, 13; total, 255; new bed 12; total, 402; remaining under treatment, 119. Board of health at Natchez, Miss., pronounce six to ten cases of yellow fever there.

Shanghai, Aug. 28.—The Chinese foreign board has appointed a special commissioner to assist Chinese merchants here to dispose of the enormous quantity of American goods confiscated for before the boycott was announced, hoping thus to avert a financial panic.

RAILROAD PASSES

As Used by Public Officials
Scored by Gov. La-follette.

SOME EXISTING EVILS

In the Way of Legislative Abuses
Are Given a Hard Rap at Elkhart Chautauqua.

Wisconsin's Governor Says the Remedy Lies in Direct Nominations.

Elkhart, Ind., Aug. 28.—Governor Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin delivered his address on "Representative Government" before 10,000 people at the St. Joseph Valley Chautauqua Saturday afternoon. Trusts and railroads were assailed and he disapproved the idea of any public officials using railroad passes. He said congress and state legislatures are controlled by lobbyists. The remedy, he said, lies in making all nominations direct by the people. He thinks the government should establish a day on which all parties should nominate by the Australian ballot system. He related his story of his fight in Wisconsin, and was frequently interrupted with applause and words of approval.

EASIER FOR TEACHERS

Less Difficult Examinations to Be Given in Franklin County.

Brookville, Ind., Aug. 28.—Because of difficulty in securing licensed teachers for the schools of Franklin county, the standard which has existed in the past has been waived and less difficult examinations are to be given. This was announced at the institute just closed. The small pay that is given rural teachers, 7 cents a day less than had-carriers receive, is responsible for the small number of applicants for school positions.

Tragedy at Harmony.

Harmony, Ind., Aug. 28.—Frank Lawson, twenty-eight years old, was fatally shot early Sunday by William Dickens. Dickens, escaped. The shooting was in front of the home of David Gravelly. Dickens, it is said, stopped Lawson and accused him of going to the house to visit one of Gravelly's daughters. Lawson denied this and in a quarrel which followed he was shot.

A Minister's Request.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 28.—The Central Labor union has received a request from the Rev. H. S. Morrison, pastor of the First Avenue Presbyterian church, who seeks membership in the union. The organization will act favorably on the pastor's name, it is thought, which will be the first instance in the history of the union that a minister has been a member.

Probably Fatal Riot.

Oakland City, Ind., Aug. 28.—A riot occurred in a "shop ale" joint here, in which Luther Cook and Officer Thos. Wallace were wounded, the latter probably fatally, while several others were more or less injured. The trouble arose over the refusal of one man to pay for a bottle of beer. About twenty-five shots were fired.

Excursion Train Wrecked.

Logansport, Ind., Aug. 28.—The Pennsylvania excursion train returning to this place from Cincinnati collided with a car of cars in the local yards last night. Engineer Pat Grady of Logansport and Fireman Eberman of Richmond were fatally hurt, while a number of passengers were painfully injured.

Murder Trial Continued.

Richmond, Ind., Aug. 28.—The trial of John Knapp, charged with the murder of Leonard Geisler, marshal of Hagerstown, has been continued from Sept. 11 to Oct. 2 because of the illness of Knapp's attorney, John F. Robbins. Judge Fox has announced that no further continuances will be granted.

Going After the Gamblers.

Greensburg, Ind., Aug. 28.—Fifty affidavits have been filed against alleged gamblers here, and wholesale arrests are to be made. The crusade began by an assault made on John Foreman who were supposed to have been miffed because Foreman charged them with running gambling houses.

Caught on the Track.

Valparaiso, Ind., Aug. 28.—Rufus Lyle, forty years old, was killed at Dunn park, this county. He was struck by a train while walking on the track. Michael McCormack, aged seventy, was struck by a train in this city and thrown forty feet, escaping with a few slight bruises.

In Trouble With Uncle Sam.

Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 28.—Leslie Burroughs of Darlington was arraigned before United States Commissioner Frank Kimmel on a charge of shooting through a rural mailbox. He was held to the action of the federal grand jury in the sum of $100.

Logansport, Ind., Aug. 28.—William A. Purdy, who was shot at Redkey Friday night in the railroad crossing war, is dead at St. Joseph's hospital here.

SEEING AMERICA.

Wonderful Scenic Trip Across Rocky Mountains to Oregon Exposition.

In certain respects the excursions to the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, Portland, Oregon, via Pennsylvania Lines, beginning May 23rd and continuing through the summer, offer advantages never before presented to Exposition visitors. The trip to the Oregon Exposition, in addition to the attractiveness of the extensive exhibits, includes the journey through the scenic wonderland of the Rocky Mountains and the Cascade Range, and what American has not looked forward from the days of the geography class in school to the time when those great sights should be seen in reality? The time was never so favorable as now. The trip may be made less expensive than ever. For only a light difference in fare tourists may extend their trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles. The return trip may be made over a different route, enabling travelers to view much more of the west. For full particulars, fares, dates of special excursions to Portland and account of conventions, through time and passenger service apply to ticket agent of Pennsylvania Lines.

G. A. R. excursion tickets will be sold at the above fare. Their sale will begin August 29th and continue daily until September 3d. Tickets may be obtained to Denver, where the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held September 4th to 7th, and to Colorado Springs or Pueblo.
The fare is an unusually low one, and the occasion presents an exceptional opportunity for a sight-seeing trip to Colorado and the West. Excursionists may go over one route and return over another, making the trip via Chicago, returning through St. Louis, or vice versa. Full particulars may be ascertained by consulting J. W. WRAY, Agt. Seymour, Ind.

KIDNEY DISEASES CAUSE ONE-THIRD OF THE TOTAL DEATHS.

When the Kidneys fail to perform their functions properly by not straining out the poisonous waste matter from the blood as it passes through them, the poisons are carried by the circulation to every part of the body, deranging the different organs. This causes heart trouble, stomach trouble, sluggish liver and a host of other ills, all due to deranged Kidneys.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

corrects irregularities and cures Kidney and Bladder diseases in every form, tones up the whole system, and the diseases that have resulted from disordered Kidneys disappear, because the cause has been removed. Commence taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at the first sign of danger. Do not risk having Bright's Disease or Diabetes.

CURED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.
Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmore, Saratoga Co., N. Y., writes:—I am glad to have an opportunity of telling what magnificent results I have had from using FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE after having tried other advertised medicines and several physicians. Before I began it I had to get up from 12 to 30 times each night to relieve my bladder. I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired that I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. In fact, I was so badly used up that I had given up hope of living when I was urged by a friend to try FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. One potent bottle worked wonders, and before I had taken the third bottle the superfluous flesh had gone, as well as all other symptoms of kidney trouble. My friends were surprised that I was cured, as they all thought I was going to die. Every few days some one comes from miles away to learn the name of the wonderful medicine that cured me of Bright's Disease, and not one that has tried it has failed to be benefited.
